前言

五勢梅花樁歷史悠久，源遠流長，本書處介紹的拳擊，是韓其昌老先生早年帶來北京的。此拳風格獨特，效果突出，素有拳勢樸實、動作無華、內外兼練、體用兼備等特點。是一個修身、養性、祛病、健體、強身、自衛的有效手段。

韓其昌老先生早年在北京的大、中學校裏從事國術教學工作，多年來均以口傳心授的方式傳授技藝。韓老先生以身作則，因材施教，嚴格授徒，數十年如一日，對國術事業忠心耿耿。而今韓老先生已是耄耋之年，爲了保存國故，他授意其弟子記錄此拳，奉獻給中華武壇，爲事業了其宿願。

本書爲王志忠、韓建中、燕子傑分工合著，撰成後全部經過韓其昌老先生通閱。由弟子王志忠校訂。

本書在撰寫、拍照、繪畫等過程中得到了陸其仁、李念周、李佩基、王海鵬、張九卿、倪東堅、高石鋼、任風坤、邢玉民、蔣國兵等先生的支持和協助，在此表示感謝！

由於著作弟子才疏學淺，水平有限，且是多頭撰寫，難免有掛一漏萬、表述頻贅，不妥之處，敬希廣大讀者給予指正。

Foreword

The five Meihuazhuang techniques are time-honored. The boxing techniques in this book were introduced in Beijing by Master Han Qichang in his early years. Unique, practically effective, this boxing is known for its powerful and simple movements, and a unity between inside and outside trainings. It is an effective means for cultivating moral characters, removing diseases, toughening physique and enhancing self-defense.

Master Han was engaged in wushu teaching in higher learning institutions and middle schools in Beijing in his early years. He usually passes his skills on to his disciples by dictation. Indefatigable in his learning and tireless to give advice to others by setting an example, Master Han is strict with his apprentices. He suits his teaching to different students. Loyal to wushu, he acts in the same way for several decades. He is really a distinguished master, who has disciples all over the country. Now he is in his 90s. In order to preserve the national treasure, he entrusts his disciples to compile the boxing techniques into a book to be presented to China's wushu community. This is to fulfil his long-cherished hope of making new contribution to the country.

Wang Zhizhong, Han Jianzhong and Yan Zijie are the co-authors of this book, which was checked from cover to cover by Master Han Qichang and revised by Wang Zhizhong.

Meager knowledge on the part of co-authors may result in wordiness and incompleteness in expression. Therefore, this book is open to criticism from wushu masters and readers.

一、幹枝五勢梅花樁簡介

幹枝五勢梅花樁，簡稱梅花樁或叫梅花拳，它是我國比較古老的拳術之一，有它自己獨特的風格和技擊方法。據老前輩講：過去梅花樁不論是練功，還是技擊，都在樁上進行。在長方形的拳場上照套路，每步一樁，栽樁約有百根，隨着功夫不斷地增長，樁也不斷加高。

梅花樁基本套路之中的樁步五勢：大勢、順勢、拗勢、小勢、敗勢爲靜止的拳勢，是練全身之力和全身之氣的主要方法，它宛如盛開的雙瓣梅花。而行步三法：扎法、撤法、擺法，又是練習忽進忽退，行東就西，忽上忽下，靈活多變，使敵者如墜五里霧中的步法。它彷彿梅樹的茂盛枝幹，以行步三法巧妙地把樁步聯繫起來，交替出現，故又有人稱之爲幹枝五勢梅花樁。

後來，樁上練功漸漸地改在地上，但它仍然保持了原有的拳勢動作，保持了原有的上、中、下三盤打法，所以又有“落地幹枝五勢梅花樁”之稱。到了第八代祖師張從富，梅花樁拳勢動作又由大架改爲小架。所以，在民間流傳的五勢梅花樁，就有大架和小架之分。

I. A brief introduction to five Ganzhi Meihuazhuang techniques

Ganzhi Meihuazhuang (Plum Blossom Pile Boxing) is one of China's ancient boxing schools. It has its own unique style and attack-defence art. According to senior wushu masters, previously, either Meihuazhuang kung-fu (Plum Blossom Pile Boxing Techniques) or sparring was practised on stumps. In line with routines, several hundred stumps, each for one step, were planted on a rectangular ground. Stumps were heightened as practitioners improved their skills.

Five forms of footwork in basic routines of Meihuazhuang, i.e., da (big), shun (seriatim), ao (counter), xiao (petty) and bai (tumbling), are all static boxing forms, which are main methods to practise physical strength and qi. They are like a double-petaled plum flower in full blossom. Three methods of the walking stance, i.e., forward, backward and swinging, are also the footwork with its movement flexible, changeable, advancing, retreating, tumbling hither and thither, and up and down. They are easy to confuse an opponent. They are just like well grown plum branches, coordinating ingeniously the footwork, with which they appear interchangeably.

With the change of times, the boxing was gradually shifted from stumps to the ground in view of some inconvenience and high cost to plant stumps. But it preserves its original movements and forms, and upper, middle and lower three fighting arts. So it is also called "ground Ganzhi dry branch Meihuazhuang." Later, the eighth generation Master Zhang Congfu changed the boxing from big postures into petty postures. Therefore, Meihuazhuang popular among the people is divided into big-posture and petty-posture schools.

二、五勢梅花樁概述

五勢梅花樁，亦稱落地幹枝五勢梅花樁，俗稱五勢梅花拳，簡稱梅花樁或梅花拳。是中國武術運動中的一套實用性傳統拳術，流傳在中國冀、魯、豫一帶。

五勢梅花樁，拳勢樸實無華，動作舒展大方。靜如寒梅怒放，動如殘花飄蕩，它具有拳勢泰然，意境美好，動靜相間，內外兼練，剛柔相濟，體用兼備的優點。

五勢梅花樁可以單人練功、二人練功、三人練功、四人練功、以至八人練功，還可以多人共同練功。它既有其嚴謹的傳統內功，又有其固有的踢、打、摔、拿、跌、撲、滾、翻等防身自衛的傳統外功以及傳統器械練法。

II. A general survey of five Meihuazhuang techniques

Meihuazhuang, also called Ground Ganzhi Meihuazhuang or Meihuquan, or just simply Meiquan, is one of traditional applicable wushu schools popular in China's Hebei, Shandong, and Henan provinces. It has its own unique peculiarities like those of other Chinese wushu schools.

Meihuazhuang is characteristic of its simple, unadorned and fluent movements, like a winter plum in full blossom when static and a flower blown off when dynamic.

Meihuazhuang is a kung-fu school that regards hardship as joy and renders joy to practitioners when they get over hardship. Both flexible and vigorous, combining dynamic movements with static ones, neigong (internal exercises) with wai-gong (external exercises), it has fine meditation and the advantages for health and self-defence.

Meihuazhuang can be practised by one, two, three, four, or even eight people, and also can be joinedly practised by many people. A boxing school with a complete system, it not only has traditional close-knit nei-gong (internal exercises), but also wai-gong (external exercises) for self-defence, such as kicking, punching, throwing, grappling, tumbling, jumping, rolling, and bouncing, and traditional weapons.

五勢梅花樁樁步變換是一種靜力練習的功夫，俗稱“拉架子”。從運動生理學的角度來說，就是通過練功的刺激，加強大腦皮層的調節功能，協調運動器官的機能，克服內臟器官的惰性，使練功者形成一個“氣不湧出，面不更色”（即心平氣和）的整體功架（動力定型），從而收到一個“內練精、氣、神，外練筋、骨、皮”的效果。

五勢梅花樁的練功順序如圖所示，它是根據陰陽轉結，五行生尅，互相關聯，互相制約的哲理，創造和發展起來的。

(三)五勢梅花樁練功五要：

1. 要正：姿勢崢嶸。
2. 要順：勁力通順。
3. 要圓：變化圓活。
4. 要滿：精神飽滿。
5. 要夠：氣勢泓濃。

(2) Changing notion of zhuang stance in Meihuazhuang:

Changes of zhuang stance in Meihuazhuang called “poising postures”, are basic for practising static strength. In the light of sports physiology, through the stimulation of exercises, co-ordinative functions of cerebral cortex can be enhanced and potentiality of body can be tapped to co-ordinate the functions of human organs and overcome inertia of internal organs. Little by little, practitioners can achieve an integrated framework of skills (dynamic power frame-work) in which “qi doesn’t spill out and face doesn’t change its color” (a peaceful state of mind and body), so as to accomplish a result of “practising internal essence, qi and spirit and practising external muscle, bones and skin.” That result is also called a saving of energy.”

The practising sequence of Meihuazhuang is illustrated in the above diagram. Meihuazhuang conforms to the philosophical theory of Yin-Yang changes and mutual supplement, connection and restraint, and is an applicable boxing school.

(3) Five “musts” in practising Meihuazhuang:

1. Must keep postures straight.
2. Must exert strength smoothly.
3. Must let changes be flexible.
4. Must be in high spirit.
5. Must let momentum be full.

Movement Five: Follow the previous one (fig. 20) Lean weight onto left foot, and bend leg 90° to let shank remain vertical with ground. At the same time, set right heel on ground, with tiptoe stretching outward and right knee slightly bent to form swan goose walking stance. Set 70 percent of weight onto left foot and 30 percent onto right foot. At the same time, clench left hand into fist, and continue to raise it (palm side forward and fist eye inside). Clench right hand into fist and lower it down to right side from upper front of head to let arm remain horizontal at right side (fist eye up) as torso turns 90° to the right. Look to right side. 四、五勢梅花樁的特點

(一)五勢梅花樁的拳勢特點:

靜以觀動，動以觀靜，功中有拳，拳中有功，氣隨意發，力隨氣使，內外兼練，一氣貫串。

(二)五勢梅花樁功法特點:

手隨脚出，步隨身換，登樁也然，落地也然，剛柔相濟，體用兼備，一巧破千斤，一力降十點。

(三)五勢梅花樁的實用特點是:

蓄勁如開弓、發勁如放箭、樁步起落求穩，行步往復求速，靜如處女守身，動如鵠鷹攫兔，三易寒暑識藝，亂拳絕手蒙悟。

IV. Peculiarities of Meihuazhuang

1. The boxing peculiarities of Meihuazhuang:

Static movements are combined with dynamic ones, and strength and boxing skills are closely knit. Qi circulates according to mind, and strength is exerted with qi. All movements are fluent, integrating inside training with outside training.

2. Skill peculiarities of Meihuazhuang:

Hand punches are delivered together with leg attacks, and step changes co-ordinate torso turns. Kicking ground and setting feet on ground are done steadily. Firm and gentle movements supplement each other. One static movement can upset a powerful person with one thousand jin of strength, and one strength can overwhelm that from 10 people.

3. Practical application peculiarities of Meihuazhuang:

Accumulate strength like a drawn bow, and deliver strength like an arrow. Take and set zhuang stances steadily, come and go in mobile steps nimbly. Static like a girl protecting her virginity, and dynamic as a vulpature capturing a rabbit. Three years of persistent practice can make practitioners understand and learn true art.

五、五勢梅花樁的手、眼、身法、步

(一)頭

頭是五勢梅花樁行功覺效的首要部位。“頭”在練功中要力戒前俯後仰，左歪右斜的弊病。

(二)手

在五勢梅花樁基本拳法中有刁、拿、鎖、帶、崩、挑、劈、砸、勾、攪、拋、打等上盤手法，均體現着手的功能。手型像梅花開放（見手型圖1、2、3）。

(三)拳

五勢梅花樁的拳要求握平，使拳頭氣力充實。其拳型好似含包待放的蓓蕾（見拳型圖1、2、3）。

V. The headwork, handwork, eyework, bodywork and footwork of Meihuazhuang

1. Headwork

Head is the chief organ in exercising skills of Meihuazhuang. Therefore, it is requested that the head should be free from backwardforward leaning and left-right oblique positions in practice.

2. Handwork

In Meihuazhuang boxing basics, the functions of hand are expressed in hooking, grappling, locking, withdrawing, tilting, raising, hacking, thrashing, grabbing, throwing and punching, all upper combat methods. Hand forms are like plums in blossom. (see hand form figures 1, 2 and 3)

3. Fistwork

In Meihuazhuang, the fist should be held horizontally, that is, fist back and the first joints of other four fingers should be held horizontally to let the fist be powerful. The fist form is like a petal ready to blossom. (see fist form figures 1, 2 and 3)

(四)身

身是人體居中的部位，起着舉足輕重的作用。即在起落、進退、閃展、騰挪、屈伸、撥縮、輾轉、扭躑、挨膀、擠靠、吸卸、柔化、偎身靠打、跌撲滾翻中起着重要作用，在五勢梅花樁的功法中應居要位。

(五)脚

在五勢梅花樁的下盤腿法和步法中，腳的功能尤為重要。腳在樁法中起着固定肢體以利組織勁力的作用。而在腿法和步法中，腳又起着忽進忽退，忽左忽右、聲東擊西、上下起落和踢、點、截、撞、劈、扣、摧、踏、勾、掛、踩、扁、躡、崩、跳、躍等的作用，在五勢梅花樁中腳的運用最為活躍。

4. Bodywork

Body is the central part, playing a vital function, that is, a major function in rising and landing, advancing and retreating, didging and leaping, bending and stretching, shrinking, turning and twisting, closing and leaning, withdrawing and softing, bending to punch, tumbling, jumping and rolling. Bodywork occupies a major position in Meihuazhuang skills. This is what some people say "body movement precedes foot movement; feet and hands should move co-ordinatively."

5. Footwork

The function of foot is even more important in lower leg-twining methods and footwork in Meihuazhuang. Feet hold body steady to organize strength in zhuang stance. In leg kicks and footwork, feet advance and retreat, move left and right, rise and land, and kick, point, intercept, thrash, chop, buckle, stamp, parry, tilt, leap and jump. In Meihuazhuang, the role of feet is most flexible.

八、五勢梅花樁三法路線圖

注：四門爲虛，三法爲實，四門空隔而三法寓於其中，三法爲行步之宗，有擺法，撤法，扎法之別。擺法爲行步之首，撤法爲抽撤撤迅，扎法求進攻之疾。有上下，左右，前後，起落，進退，輾轉等變動不居，週流六虛之妙。

三法的基本規律是：“擺法”是身在端綫（邊綫）而向角的方向前進。“撤法”是身在角區而向對角的方向撤退。“扎法”是身在交叉綫的對頂角區進退。

VIII. Sketch of the three methods of Meihuazhuang

Points for attention:

Four doors are empty, and three methods are firm. Three methods are enclosed into four doors. Three methods, which are swinging, retreating and stabbing methods, are the final purpose of walking. Swinging method is the leading form of walking, retreating method requests nimbleness and stabbing method demands speediness in attacking. There are upper and lower, left and right, front and back, rising and landing, advancing and retreating, and turning movements, which embody magic of six emptiness.

The basic rule of three methods: Swinging method is done when walking in directions of four corners at end line. Retreating is done when retreating in directions of opposite corners at corner area. Stabbing method is advancing and retreating at vertical angles of the cross line.

Explanation for the practising methods:

Above is the formal half set of Meihuazhuang. The latter set is similar to the formal one in movements, but contrary in directions. To avoid repetition, figures and illustrations are all omitted. If practitioners want to continue practising the latter set, they may go on at "Tiger leaping stance" (fig. 166), and advance to the corner (the sequence is the same as the formal half set) and resume finishing stance till reaching the original position, thus finishing the whole set.

Practitioners should stick to earnest practice, go over again and again, and continually practise more than two rounds before they can achieve an obvious effect.

十一、五勢梅花樁中的成拳技擊十大手

成拳技擊十大手是成拳技擊練習中最基本的十種技擊手法，雖然十大手比較簡單，却是禦敵防身的實用手法，並為今後練習更加複雜的技擊打基礎，所以稱“十大手”是學習五勢梅花樁技擊的必經之路。

XI. 10 sparring techniques of chengquan of Meihuazhuang

The previous Meihuazhuang School rules were very strict. Practitioners had to practise basics for three years before they could learn other Meihuazhuang variations, chengquan, yingquan and weapon routines.

The 10 sparring techniques of chengquan are the basic ones in this set of boxing. Though they are quite simple, they are very practically useful for self-defense, and are the basis for practising more complicated sparring techniques. Therefore, the 10 techniques are essentials for learning Meihuazhuang sparring methods.

成拳十大手對練，其中有一部份是五勢梅花樁中的上、中、下三盤抓、拿、摔、打、跌、撲、滾、翻動作，以及劈、扣、摧、踏、踢、點、截、撞等腿法，它雖然比單純練習套路提高了一大步，接近了實踐，但還是按套路來進行對練的階段，我們在對練時千萬不能忽視了這一點。

The 10 sparring techniques of chengquan embody a past of upper, middle and lower sets of catching, grappling, punching, tumbling, swopping, rolling, and turning, and such leg-attack techniques as chopping, looking, pressing, stamping, kicking, pointing, intercepting and crashing. These are more advanced than ordinary routines and more combat-oriented, but they are still practised according to routines. We cannot neglect this point in practice.

按一定套路來互相對練，要求在對打練習中要相互“喂拳”，互相借勁，不頂不抗，彼此配合要協調，各種姿式都要求正、順、使對練雙方感到打的應手，摔的平穩，萬萬不能互相叫勁，冷拳亂手，或因過份用力達到了僵化的程度。這樣練法，既容易使對方受傷，又不能相互體會勁道，也影響了技擊技術的發揮和提高。

梅花樁前輩們常講：“不會挨打，就不會打人。”在成拳對練時，不能只打“上風拳”，充想贏數手，這樣反而進步慢。經常打“下風拳”的人，經常挨打、經常倒地，嚐到了換摔、挨打的勁道，通過實踐，方能夠從中體會到吸、禦、柔、化、挨、撈、扭、蹬的勁道要領，進步當然比只打上風拳的人要快。

五勢梅花樁中的“成拳技法十大手”，初練時表面上看起來只有“十手”對打方法，實際上它並不是一成不變的，每一手打法都能夠變化為多種打法。譬如我們前面所講的第一手“挑進”可以正面上，也可以反面上，可以挑進後招對方咽喉，也可以挑進後用栽錘、快錘，甚至利用對方挑進之時變換手法，用時打，撐、撥腿等等，總而言之，一手接一手、一招連一招，百打百破，千變萬化。打“成拳”是梅花樁技擊的初步階段，為以後打“贏拳”作準備。

既然“成拳”套路鍛練的目的是為進一步學習梅花樁中的“贏拳”作準備，打基礎，那麼，五勢梅花樁的“贏拳”又是怎麼回事呢？

“贏拳”，就是拋開套路，沒有一定路線，隨心所欲的擊打格鬥。要想作到這一步，我們在練習“成拳技擊十大手”之時，除掌握一定的技擊招數外，更重要的還要領會“運動知覺”，“動知者易，運覺者難”，要學會聽勁、懂勁和借勁，這樣我們才能閃化自如，引進落空，擊打得力。

Duel practice in line with routines requires both practitioners to “feed fists” to each other, take advantage of each other’s force, and cooperate coordinatively. Practitioners should put up upright and fluent movements to let each other feel handy in practice, tumble steadily. They cannot exert force too strongly and abruptly so as to avoid hurting each other, let each other feel the force, and boost sparring level.

Previous Meihuazhuang masters of the older generation often say: “You cannot learn beating without being beaten.” In practising chengquan duel, practitioners should not try to get upper hand to overwhelm the opponent. This would slow down the progress. Offering the upper hand and being beaten and tumbling down on ground would lead to feeling the striking force. Practice can let practitioners know how to defense, soften and avert attacks, thus making greater progress than those who always try to get the upper hand.

Chengquan sparring seems to consist of 10 techniques, actually they are not unalterable. Every technique can split into several methods. Take Technique One – Tilting & Advancing – as example. It can be practised from front or from rear. Practitioners can tilt and advance to seize opponent’s throat from behind, or tilt and advance to punch quickly, or sometimes punch, sometimes push and poke legs when opponent tilts and advances. In a word, various sparring methods should be closely knit. Practising chengquan is the initial stage of Meihuazhuang, making preparation for practising yingquan.

Since practising chengquan routines is the preparation for yingquan, then what is yingquan of Meihuazhuang?

Yingquan is free from any fixed routines and lines, combatting at will. To do so, practitioners must learn fixed sparring techniques in practising chengquan routines, in addition to understanding sports feel. Because it is easier to exert force than feel it, they must manoeuvre, understand and capitalize on opponent’s force. In this way, they can practise freely.

梅花椿前輩們還常講：“拳無拳，意無意，無意之中是真意。”這些話是老前輩們多年總結出來的精華。我們日常生活中不少習武者練了一輩子拳，能說、能練、姿勢優美，可就是實戰之中發揮不出來，原因當然很多，其中重要的恐怕有兩個，一是功夫不到家、藝沒上身。二是缺乏實戰。

雖然我們前邊講對打練習時要講究配合，要講究姿式，可是當我們練到一定程度以後，就應該着重於實踐。按照“拳無拳，意無意，無意之中是真意”的說法，就是能夠把所有套路，招法，融化到身上，與敵交手，拳來腳去，夠形成下意識的反應，不加思索百打百破，克敵制勝。

如果我們想練到這種程度，需要持之以恆的長期磨練，需要名師指導，需要真傳實做，需要真打實鬥，需要真正練到藝上身。

Meihuazhuang masters also say: "When you practising a boxing, you don't seem to practise it; when you intend to beat your opponent, you don't seem to beat him. There is a true intention in the casual intention." These remarks are the quintessence summed up by the previous masters in their long practice. In practical life, we may see many practitioners who practise Meihuazhuang all their lives and can talk about it, practise in graceful stances, but they cannot bring their skills into play in real combat. There are many causes. Among which, the major one is lacking of true skills and real combat experience.

Though we talked about coordination and cooperation in duel practice, and stressed on stances previously, we should test our skills in real combat after some practice. That requires practitioners to master all routines, and hand and leg techniques, and form subconscious reaction ability, in which they can beat and overwhelm opponents without thinking.

If we want to master such skills, we must stick to long-time practice, seek advice from famous masters, practise in earnest and practise in real combat. Only by doing so can we acquire true skills.
